

Association of Information Managers (NI)

supporting information work
in Northern Ireland

Do you work in information?

Aim (NI), formerly the Specialist Libraries and Information Services Forum, addresses the needs of the 'specialist' section within the Northern Ireland information community by providing a forum for:

- networking and sharing good practice;
- learning and professional development;
- lobbying to influence policy making (as a panel of Library & Information Services Council).

The Association has organised events in the following areas:

- Exploring Partnerships in the Information Age
- Records Management: Challenges and Opportunities
- Developing your Professional Growth and Confidence
- How to Develop your Professional Profile

Membership

Membership of Aim (NI) is drawn from a wide range of public, voluntary and private organisations who provide an information service.

The Association has a committee of six, which meets every two months. The Chair and Secretary are elected by the membership for a two-year period. If you would like to join the committee to help plan future events, you will be made very welcome. Usually at least one event is organised each year. This is a great way to meet information colleagues in Northern Ireland and to share experiences and best practice. If you would like further information on the Association please contact:
